

Crash Prediction >

Download here!

An open-source implementation of the algorithm for crash prediction based on the mobility history of a user. The mobility history includes position information, and optional events and crashes of the user during a specific period of time. It includes the code for extracting Individual Mobility Networks (IMNs) and Location Extraction for ease of use.

Code Workflow

The code includes different scripts with various functionalities as shows in the figure.

>> More Info